CLASS WILL

We, the Class of '61, being of sound mind and body bequeath the following:

I, Marty Rush, leave my shelf in the top of the closet to my brother, Bobby.

I, Jennie Brawner, will my bad temper to Carol Landers, hoping she will use it on Jeff Vansant.

I, Henry Adams, will all the chewing gum under my desk to Randy Moore.

I, Jay Liebman, am taking all my books, paper, pencils, and spitballs with me. (I didn't win tightest for nothing).

I, Jimmy Ginn, leave and take all my ability with me for fear that I will need it all.

I, Edgar Hume, bequeath my ability to forget more than I can learn to Capital Day School teachers who can remember more than I ever knew.

I, Sherry Dryden, will to Dianne Dailey my quietness. . . .

I, Bill Perry, will my ability to . . . to . . . to . . . Oh, well, can I help it if I don't have any abilities?

I, Connie Wood, will my only copy of The Little Engine That Could to the Capital Day Upper Library.

I, Nan Pullen, leave my title (Best All Around Girl) to Dickie Collins.

I, Ann Buckman, leave my ability to make good grades in French to Hoppy Henton.

We, the Graduating Class of 1961 leave.

In witness thereof,

Nan Pullen

CLASS PHROPHECY

On this, the Eighth of May, nineteen hundred and sixty-one, we, Connie Wood, Jay Liebman, Jennie Brawner, and Henry Adams write this, the official Prophecy of the Graduating Class of 1961 at Capital Day School.

Hello, Friends, this is JIMMY GINN, of C.D.S. radio station in Cape, Kentucky, where our rocket ship "MOON OR BUST" is ready for take-off on its trip to the moon.

Since the successful space flight made 10 years ago by Alan B. Shepherd, the population of the moon has increased greatly.

Many people and their families are going along on this trip to be the noted 'firsts' on the moon. They will set up hospitals, schools, libraries, law offices and any thing else that a well-rounded planet should have. I, during this hour program shall speak to some of these people who I am pleased to say were graduated with me at Capital Day School in 1961.

First, we see EDGAR E. HUME III who is going along on the trip to see that nothing goes wrong. If everything goes as scheduled, Mr. Hume will remain on the moon as the first electromagnetic scientist.

Miss MARTHA RUSH will be on hand to start the first school, "The M. RUSH ACADEMY." Assisting Miss Rush will be SHERRY DRYDEN, who will teach History, Math., English and Science. Miss Dryden has her H.E.M.S. degree (History, Math, English, and Science degree). Also teaching in the Academy will be BILL PERRY, Girl's Physical Education Instructor and CONNIE WOOD, who will teach French and Spanish.

ANN BUCKMAN and NAN PULLEN, Attorneys, will be the first lawyers on the moon. I believe that their first cases will be pertaining to the moon men who disagree to us 'Earth Men' living on 'their' planet.

Drs. J. LIEBMAN M.D., and HENRY ADAMS, PHD. will share offices on the moon. Their office nurse and silent worker, JENNY BRAWNER will establish the first hospital.

Well, Folks, here's the count down- - 10, 9, 8, 7, 6, 5, 4, 3, 2, I'M SORRY FRIENDS, , , My time is up. So long! See you on the return trip! ?

CAPITAL DAY SCHOOL ACTIVITIES

NEWSPAPER—The Capital Day School newspaper is published once each month by the Eighth Grade Class. Class news, world news, literary features written by students, school sports and many other interesting items are featured.

CHORUS—The Capital Day School Chorus is composed of all students in the Upper School. Each year the chorus presents at least one program for the Parent's Council, sings at graduation and makes guest appearances in Frankfort.

JUNIOR CONSERVATION—The Junior Conservation Club is sponsored by the Conservation Department of the State of Kentucky. All boys in the Upper School are eligible for membership.

BASKETBALL TEAMS—Basketball is featured for all boys beginning in the third grade. Practice and tournament play is carried on throughout the basketball season.

CHEERLEADING—All girls in the Upper School are eligible to try out for cheerleaders. The cheerleaders compete with other schools for the Y.M.C.A. Cheerleading Trophy.

AMERICAN AMATEUR UNION JR. PHYSICAL FITNESS TESTS—These tests are sponsored by the school and at an announced time in the spring the tests are administered. Certificates are given to the boys and girls who fulfill the requirements set out by the A.A.U.

SPRING TRACK MEET—Each spring the entire school meets for a track meet. All girls and boys are eligible to compete in track events set up in certain age groupings. Ribbons are awarded to the winners in each event and a small trophy is awarded to the class winning the most points in the track meet.

RELIGIOUS EDUCATION—Each Wednesday morning 8:00 — 9:00 A.M. for 7th and 8th Grade classes.
